

NEW OFFICERS OF PRE-THEO. SOCIETY ELECTED

Vice-President Knitt Will Assist Nickel With Duties.

Pro-Theologian selected the officers for this school year Friday evening, Sept. 18. Arthur Knitt was elected vice-president, and a special meeting. Other officers elected Friday include: Euse E. Knitt, president; Mrs. Euse E. Knitt, secretary-treasurer. The faculty advisor is Dr. John H. Hirsch, professor of history and religion.

Following last year's school year the society will meet on Tuesday evenings. Programs will consist of subjects of theological interest, including reports and discussions by the various members and also guest speakers.

The motto selected for this year is "service." They plan to cooperate with the church in redecorating the convection room and the chapel in Grossman Hall.

SUMMER BIBLE CAMP ENJOYED

Wartburg Students Benefit from a Program of Both Spiritual and Sporting Nature.

Several Wartburg students attended the American Lutheran conference Bible camp held during the summer at Wartburg, Cedar Lake, Iowa, July 5 to 11.

Students Attended

Those who went (a total of 411 of the who were Margaret Drost, Edith Pethick, Carolyn Muell, Alie Borchardt, Ruth Housch, and Ruthie Bruehl).

Some phase of the camp motto, "Building the Body of Christ" was emphasized in the morning devotions and evening service. Hesseyburg, minister, and Billie Stahl conducted the first conference conducted by Dr. C. A. Wendorff and Miss Margaret Drost.

Supervised Recreation

In addition to the religious experiences, like singing, a mixer, picnic, and treasure hunt, group recreation was provided every afternoon. The winner of the girl's tennis tournament held at camp was Margaret Drost of Waverly.

The Rev. R. C. Schlegler, pastor of the First Lutheran Church, president of the camp board, which made arrangements for this week of spiritual guidance.

Rev. Mrs. Brown and family are enjoying a two weeks vacation in Eau and Grays, Colorado.

Miss Katherine Kaiser, daughter of Wartburg Hall Thursday evening, Sept. 19, after chapel for a house council election. The election was held to determine the list of rules and regulations of the school year.

Two candidates were chosen as president, two board members on the second floor and two members of the hall council.

Approximately 145 persons were present at the election. The hall and basement system is used as it was last year.

Miss Katherine has been employed as assistant cook to Miss Elizabeth Froehling, who was chosen.

Richard Gronewold heads the hall council. Other members are the LaVerne Matthes, William Beck, Paul Riehl, Carl Schulz, Otto Kuehne, and Carl Schaefer, Norman Becker.

Other members are Arno Oberle, Sherman Sandrock, Theo Danckels, Gladys Schroeder, and Carl Schaefer.

Improvements to facilitate use as a college housing club were made during the summer, including the official opening. A wall was removed in order to enlarge the room.

A new shelf forencyclopedia, a new bookshelf, and a new bookcase and a considerable number of new books will soon be received.

Miss Drost, aided by Paul Beck, made the shelves this summer.

Even student assistants are helping in the library work. They are: Helen Gluck, Virginia Gluck, Helen Wettberg, Jim Kuhn, Ken Vincent Hult, and Harold Kolbe.

The students have nearly completed cataloging of the German department.

The regular work is to take care of all library cards.

ESTHERVILLE FIRST KNIGHT FOE SEPT. 25

Hertel to Have Strong and Heavy Team in Second Year.

The Wartburg gridiron will open their 1936 football season in a night game against Estherville on Sept. 25 at the Wartburg Fieldhouse in Wartburg, Iowa.

Coach Elmer Hertel has built up a record of a nucleus of 12 returning lettermen and a great many new players. The gridiron has developed a strong line, averaging 175 pounds, and a backfield that is strong and fast. The team has shown a variety of change and the backfield needs only perfect execution to be the best in the first encounter.

The men having reported for practice are: Harry Rappaport, Coach Hertel will draw his starting line-up here.
